MKAIR

It is time to acknowledge some of our fellow students who have demonstrated MKAIR. MKAIR is our PBIS program here at Mark Keppel.

The following students have been recognized a teacher and or staff member.

Grace Lee, senior, has been recognized for demonstrating Accountability, Integrity, Respect. Grace is collaborative and respectful of her peers & staff. She supports others when they struggle and volunteers to help others. Grace is also diplomatic in the way she resolves differences with others. Well done Grace!

Kyle Lee, senior, has been recognized for demonstrating Accountability, Integrity, Respect. Kyle always stays through the end of tech theatre, making sure that the spaces are cleaned and closed. He is also the first to go straight to work without ever needing any prompting. Great job, Kyle!

Alex Chen, junior, has been recognized for demonstrating Integrity. During school, Alex found some money in the hallways and turned the found money to Student Support Services. Thanks for having integrity, Alex.

Ethan Chow, freshman, has been recognized for demonstrating Accountability, Integrity, Respect. Ethan always does above and beyond with his work and also is such a great student. Keep up the great work Ethan.

Let's take a moment to celebrate our recognized students. To recognize your demonstration for MKAIR please stop Student Support Services.
